Search Engine Submission

Crack Google understands how difficult it can be to figure out how to submit your site to all the major search engines. You can use an auto-submission tool, but search engines are penalizing sites that use these tools more and more every day. Crack Google has compiled a list of links, which directly link to the submission section of each major search engine below listed below. This will definitely make your SEO (Search Engine Optimization) efforts a lot less difficult. Be sure to read this article at Google to make sure your site is created in a way that will be beneficial to search engines and make sure your aren't banned from any of them.

Google and Yahoo spider to all major search engines, so make sure you at least submit to both of them. Many people are not aware of a newer feature that Google that offers, which is being able to submit a sitemap of your site. You can do this once a week whereas search engine submissions are generally done once per month. If you want to build your sitemap you can visit <http://www.xml-sitemaps.com/>, then visit <https://www.google.com/accounts/ServiceLogin?service=sitemaps> and follow their instructions in order to submit your new created sitemap .
